

National Writing Project at Rider University

Summer 2010 Young Writer's Camp For Students Entering Grades 2-12

Monday-Thursday, June 28-July 1

Tuesday-Friday, July 6-9

9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Fee: $299

Young Poet's Club: Where does poetry hide? Students in grades 2-8 will discover where poems hide in artwork, literature, and outdoors and awaken their inner poet for eight days in a relaxed, non-threatening camp environment as they compose, confer, revise, edit, illustrate, and share their writing.

Students will sharpen their writing craft and develop a personal poet's toolbox while allowing their imaginations to run wild on paper.

Write with Scratch: Want to improve your high/middle schooler's writing skills? Can you imagine seeing your child express love for writing and actually look forward to doing it? NWP@Rider's Writing with Scratch summer camp program can make this happen. Students will embrace the writing process through the use of computer animation and video game creation. Only a basic knowledge of computer use is necessary. All levels encouraged to attend.
